A Downton Abbey Party

HOW TO HOST A
DOWNTON ABBEY
THEMED PARTY

WRITTEN BY BEC OF 'FOR EVERY HEN'

This is your ultimate guide!

As Mr. Carson says, 'the business of life is the acquisition of memories'. Fuelled by mystery and vintage charm; this Downton Abbey themed party is sure to make you many!

From lavish multi-course meals to dramatic escape room experiences; all the ideas you'll need to host a party for the history books can be found throughout this article.

'I SHOULD HATE TO BE PREDICTABLE' - LADY VIOLET CRAWLEY

What is a Downton Abbey themed party without a little drama? Add just the right amount to your day with a DIY 1920s murder mystery escape room kit. The one we used can be played from any location (perfect for hen parties and bridal showers alike!).

WHERE TO HOST YOUR DOWNTON ABBEY PARTY

Old world charm can be brought to any venue, so don't stress too much about where you're hosting the event (we'll share lots of tips and tricks for setting the scene throughout this article).

However, if you want your party to be as realistic as possible, here are some venue ideas with vintage ambiance aplenty:

- Homes of friends or family that reflect this period in time. If the owners are associated with the party and happy to host, this could be an amazing and low cost option.
- Restaurants, pubs, function venues or halls that are inspired by the Roaring 20s.
- Accommodation with Downton Abbey vibes (majestic dining rooms, art-deco inspired furniture, beautiful gardens).
- A park or garden that allows celebrations (perfect for an outdoor high tea - just check for restrictions... and toilets!)
- An actual castle that allows guests (it will be like you've whisked party goes away to Highclere castle itself - you can't get much better than that).

IMPRESS DOWNTON ABBEY FANS WITH YOUR SETUP:

Time to transform your venue into a lavish 1920s wonderland. The following tips will add old-fashioned charm to even the newest of builds.

Tip: As you're decorating, think about all of the awesome places you can hide your DIY Escape Room clues. We will share our setup later in the article for inspiration.

AFTERNOON OR HIGH TEA PARTY

Tiered serving stands, tea cups, tea pots and fresh flowers will instantly bring your Downton Abbey tea party to life. Click here for a step-by-step table setup guide.

Should the weather permit, you may prefer to take the party outside, where the beauty of your surrounds can be enjoyed. If doing so, place a few smaller tables around the garden, each with their own cloth and setting.

To top it all off, decorate with fabric bunting or floral garlands, and place woven baskets (overflowing with flowers) where a little extra 'pizazz' is needed.

Now for the best part - a delectable range of sweet and savoury treats, paired with a variety of teas.

Fill those serving trays and tiered stands with scones, jams, cream, egg salad tea sandwiches, cakes, and any other delightful nibbles that the Dowager Countess of Grantham would approve of.

Then sip, eat and gossip the afternoon away!

Handy Tip:

Place cards can be used at your afternoon tea party. Write 'Lady' before each name (e.g. 'Lady Jess') for a fun Downton Abbey-esque touch.

FORMAL DINNER PARTY:

Hosting a multi-course meal? Be sure to meet the Crawley family's expectations when it comes to setting the table. Click here to learn where each fork, knife and plate goes.

Then, to evoke a mood that would impress even the most prestigious of guests, add some greenery, flickering candles on tiered stands, and fresh blooms in antique vases.

TABLE DECOR IDEAS INSPIRED BY DOWNTON ABBEY

- Long, majestic dining table. Create the 'look' by sliding a couple of trestles (or other long tables) together and covering in a beautiful white cloth.
- White table cloths
- Napkins
- Coupe glasses (if you don't have these, champagne flutes/wine glasses are perfectly fine)
- Tiered candle holders
- Long, flickering candles
- Greenery
- Fresh flowers (such as roses)
- Vintage/Downton Abbey themed menus
- Vintage/Downton Abbey themed place cards (go one step further by writing 'Lady' before each name – e.g. 'Lady Chloe', as pictured above)

And finally, finish off your 20th century style table with a delicious assortment of food.

You can either focus on serving meals with a Downton twist (such as roast beef, oysters and Yorkshire pudding), or create your own combinations of dishes (such as a mix of the bride-to-be's favourites - adding a sweet and personalised touch to her day).

HANDY TIP:

Serving various courses at your party will mean a great deal of cooking for the host. So it's important to think about the night and how involved you want to be in this part of it.

Would you like to take it all on yourself? Ask for help from the bridesmaids? Book a catering company? Organise a private chef? Or even coordinate a pot luck dinner?

You could also hire a (topless) waiter to help with serving! A bit of cheek for your royal affair.

ELEGANT COCKTAIL SOIREE

Set a glamorous scene indoors with candles (both in mason jars and on tiered stands), flowers, pearl draped centrepieces, and fabric bunting. You might also like to add some vintage mirrors, large rugs, peacock feathers, Crawley family portraits (Google is your friend here) and cocktail stations.

Hosting outside? Keep it light, bright and fun with floral garlands, fabric bunting and twinkle lights. If your budget allows, large, white tents were oftentimes found at these wonderful occasions.

HANDY TIP:

For those setting up cocktail stations, make sure they are overflowing with martini glasses, champagne coupes, shakers, gin, champagne and an assortment of mixers.

(Can you spot the sneaky Escape Room clue within our cocktail station below?)

AFTER MORE DECOR IDEAS?

The following items draw inspiration from the early 1920s (as well as the Downton Abbey series):

- Crawley family portraits (e.g. Lady Mary & Matthew on their wedding day). Print large and display on the wall, or print small and display on tables
- Pearl necklaces in bowls or draped strategically around your venue
- Any vintage items you (or friends/family) have around the home. Typewriters, telephones, clocks, lamps, desks, vases, serving trays, mirrors, etc.
- Large floor rugs
- Draped windows (this could be a fun DIY project using op shop fabric)
- A Downton Abbey poster (to welcome guests to the party)
- Twinkle lights (to give your celebration a beautiful, relaxed ambiance).
- Tealight candles flickering inside mason jars, martini glasses or champagne coupes

Once you've transformed the space, guests will be forgiven for thinking they've arrived at the real Downton Abbey, ready to party with the Crawley family themselves!

HANDY TIP:

When it comes to sourcing decorations, we recommend asking before purchasing. You never know what treasures your friends and family have hiding in their homes.

No luck with this? Many of the items mentioned above can also be found at op shops, garage sales and in antique stores.

DIY QUOTE DECORATIONS

We used quotes from the TV series in our decorating (see images below).

These were lovingly created with Canva, using one of their vintage backdrops and a vintage font.

Not only were these signs cheap and easy to make, but they were also great for hanging on the wall, placing on food/drink tables, and for using as photobooth props!

★Click here to create your own quote posters in Canva★

SOME OF OUR FAVOURITE QUOTES (& SAYINGS) TO USE:

- 'Are you here to help? Or to irritate?' - Dowager Countess of Grantham
- 'I never argue. I explain' - Dowager Countess of Grantham
- 'Don't be defeatist dear, it's very middle class' - Lady Violet Crawley
- 'I should hate to be predictable' - Lady Violet Crawley
- 'At my age one must ration one's excitement' - Dowager Countess of Grantham
- Keep calm and ring Mr. Carson for tea
- You don't watch Downton Abbey? How middle class of you.

If you'd rather not design your own, Etsy has a great selection of themed printables (such as this one).

ADD A TOUCH OF DRAMA

Downton Abbey is all about the romance, style and drama. We've got the romance and style covered – but what about the dramatic twists?

This is where a DIY escape room activity comes in.

Based on the roaring 20s, Lock Paper Scissors' 'Envy' kit makes the perfect addition to this theme. Not only is it fun and exciting, but it also adds some fabricated mystery and drama to the day (which, I'm sure you'll agree, is much better than any real scandals).

See the images for some of the ways we included this kit in our Downton Abbey themed party (no clue spoilers, we promise!).

FUN TIP:

We hand delivered 'telegrams' to each team to get the escape room started (the perfect way to surprise guests if they didn't know about the activity beforehand).

★Click here to view or download the 'Envy' Murder Mystery kit for your event★

OTHER ACTIVITY IDEAS:

The murder mystery escape room was a hit, but you still want more? This list of themed games and activities has got you covered:

- Downton Abbey quiz (click here for a FREE pre-made option)
- Costume or wedding dress sketches (Downton Abbey style, of course!). You may like to print off a sketch of a person/face to get everyone started (guest's can then add the outfits). Hand out prizes for funniest design, most creative design, and the design most likely to be worn by the cast
- Card games (popular in the 1920s, your bride-to-be's favourite card games would make the perfect addition to her special night)
- Host your own Downton Abbey movie or TV show viewing party (alternatively, just have it playing on low volume in the background at your event)
- Photobooth; complete with your favourite quotes from the series, plus a range of vintage props (those pictured above can be found in your Escape Room kit)
- Vintage dance class (such as the Charleston)
- Downton Abbey 'Match the Quote' game
- Charades or Pictionary (where teams can act out or draw the bride-to-be's favourite part of the series/movie)

AND FINALLY, THE OUTFITS:
The final touch to your sophisticated soiree. Are you ready to don your favourite vintage attire?!

For guests who aren't quite sure what to wear, we suggest the following:

FABULOUS 1920S FASHION
Formal gowns, drop earrings, evening shawls, stockings, jewelled head pieces, tiaras, drop waist dresses or skirts, and strands of pearls are just some of the glamorous outfits and accessories worn proudly in this era. For a full outfit guide, click here.

FAVOURITE CHARACTERS
If a Downton Abbey character truly resonated with you, why not dress the part? Martha Levingson, Cora Crawley, Daisy Mason, Lady Mary Crawley and Violet Crawley, just to name a few, all had their own unique style that is just waiting to be replicated.

BRING A LITTLE BIT OF DOWNTON TO YOUR CELEBRATION

It's time to whip up some finger sandwiches and a delicious cup of tea (or perhaps something a little stronger); you're about to pick your favourite ideas from above and turn them into one sophisticated, stylish, and dramatic plan.

The result?

A Downton Abbey-themed party that takes guests straight back to the Jazz Age itself.

Whether it be held at an old-world castle or at your kitchen table, evoke the right mood and you're guaranteed to have a great time!

Much love, keep smiling - Bec x

P.S. There is a lot of inspiration above, and not all of it needs to be followed. Work with your budget, venue and the items you have on hand. If you think outside the box and, at times, get a little crafty, the result will be a celebration that's unique and fabulous in its own right!

The perfect way to personalise
the bride's day

THEIR STORY SO FAR

A really sweet use of images. Remind everyone exactly why they're here celebrating with a little timeline story of the couple's relationship.

Start with where it all began, highlighting important milestones (such as the first date, first holiday, first house, the proposal) and then finish with where it's going (e.g. the date of their wedding and possibly a short note about how excited everyone is to see what their future holds).

FUNNY BADGES

After a subtle way to bring your group together? Why not create some hilarious badges that each and every guest (including the bride-to-be) can wear?!

If purchasing in bulk, choose one epic photo (beautiful or cringe-worthy, the choice is yours) and have it made into cute button badges that can be handed out and worn on the day.

Add some fun to your tables with sweet little pictures of your best friend!

Print your images off small and cut into circles (or squares, or rectangles, whatever shape your heart desires), and scatter across areas that need a little livening up.

You could use hilarious images of the bride throughout the years, pictures from her relationship with soon-to-be hubby, images of the bride with each of her guests, or a mix of all three.

HANDY TIP:

If you have a paper craft punch cutting tool this can be used to get a seamless shape. You may also like to create shapes in different sizes (e.g. circles that are small, medium and large) for a unique look.

CUPCAKE TOPPERS

Do your sweet treats need a bit more personality? They could become the highlight of the dessert table with a little cheeky DIY!

Using scissors or craft cutters, chop some images of the bride into cute shapes (love hearts, circles, squares) and attach to toothpicks with a hot glue gun.

When dry, pop them in your cupcakes for instant, personalised party snacks!

GAME IDEAS

HOW TO PLAY THE A-Z GAME

(... it can be naughty or nice!)

Instructions +
alternative ways
to play!

ARTICLE WRITTEN BY BEC OF 'FOR EVERY HEN'

TO PLAY, YOU WILL NEED:

Playing cards (more info to come), pens or pencils and some form of timer (egg timer, stop watch, phone - they all do the trick).

PREPARATION:

For starters, you need to prepare game cards by either downloading pre-made options (click here) or creating your own.

If you're making the cards yourself, simply put together a page that lists each letter of the alphabet, along with writing space. To help get you started, see an example playing card by clicking here or viewing the previous page.

Once you've got your cards sorted, print enough off for your celebration (whether that be per guest or per team) and store away until the big day.

HOW TO PLAY:

When it comes time to play, hand each guest/team a card and explain the following rules:

- On 'GO!', each person/team writes as many wedding related words as possible.
- Words have to begin with the letter they're next to (e.g. W could be 'Wedding', B could be 'Bride', and so on).
- There is a time limit! This game card is to be filled out in 4 minutes (pressure's on!).
- The person/team with the most answers once the buzzer goes off, wins.

Alternative Ways to Play:

CLEAN OR DIRTY, THE CHOICE IS YOURS

Want to make this an A to Z bridal shower game? We suggest sticking with the 'wedding related' words. Groom, Bride, Wedding Party - these are answers you can expect to see.

Want to spice things up a bit? Ask guests to write as many dirty/naughty words as possible instead. The answers will be as wild as your guests' imagination - prepare for some beauties!

MAKE IT PERSONAL

Rather than using the alphabet, you could create game cards using your bride-to-be's name instead. Guests' can then fill in 'dirty words', 'wedding related words', or even

'hen/bachelorette party words' next to each letter.

For a more personal touch, ask that guests write down words that represent the bride-to-be. For example, F for Fun, H for happy, and so on.

PICK A TOPIC

Is there a topic your bride-to-be loves more than anything else? Why not run with it? Dog breeds, makeup, animals, alcoholic beverages, holiday destinations - the options are endless!

TIP: If you're hosting a themed event, you may like to incorporate it into the game. For example, spooky words for a Halloween inspired party or frosty words for a Winter celebration.

3 STEPS TO AN AWESOME
'WOULD SHE RATHER'
GAME!

Instructions +
alternative ways
to play!

TO PLAY, YOU WILL NEED:

Playing cards (more info below) and some pens or pencils.

PREPARATION:

First of all, get those playing cards ready! You can do this by either downloading some pre-made options (click here) or by creating your own.

To make the cards yourself, first put together a list of 'Would She Rather' questions. These can be about sports, foods, drinks, holidays, etc. Get creative and have fun with it.

Handy Tip:

Keep your hen in mind when putting together the list. Try to pick questions that will bring back memories, or questions that you know will make her smile/laugh.

EXAMPLE 'WOULD SHE RATHER' QUESTIONS:

Food:

- Tea or coffee?
- Champagne or wine?
- Pizza or ice-cream?
- Mexican food or Italian food?
- Home cooking or eating out?
- Red wine or white wine?
- Chocolate or vanilla?
- Salty or sweet?
- Cook dinner or do the dishes?
- Live without alcohol or coffee?

Relationships:

- Be engaged for 5 months or 5 years?
- Big wedding or elope?
- Be dumped or do the dumping?
- Double date or romantic dinner for 2?
- Kissed everyday or hugged everyday?
- Date night every week or every month?
- Matching tattoos or matching piercings?

Technology:

- No internet or no phone?
- Make a phone call or send a text?
- Read a book or watch a movie?
- Scary movie or romantic comedy?
- Video game or board game?

Other Questions:

- Go to the past or go to the future?
- Desk job or outdoor job?
- Constant winter or constant summer?
- Get up early or sleep in late?
- Own a dog or own a cat?
- Brand new or vintage/second-hand?
- Party animal or designated driver?
- hotel or camping?
- Live in the country or live in the city?
- Drive the car or be the passenger?
- Stay home or go out?

HOW TO PLAY:

To play, hand each guest/team a card and explain that filling it out is simple – all you have to do is circle the option you think the bride-to-be would prefer.

The team or person with the most correct answers (according to the hen herself) will then win a prize!

Alternative Ways to Play:

SPICE IT UP

Throw a spanner in the works by adding a couple of dirty questions at the end. Nobody will see it coming and the shock will result in a great deal of laughter!

Handy Tip:

If you do decide to spice it up a bit, just make sure you know your audience. If anyone is easily offended, or there are underage guests attending, steer clear of the raunchier options.

Opting for questions that add cheek without being too naughty, instead!

WEDDING BELLS

Tailor the entire game to the wedding itself! Rather than asking questions about day-to-day life, see what your bride would rather when it comes to one of the BIGGEST days in her life.

Example questions include:
Would you rather...

- Someone show up in a white dress OR someone get proposed to at the reception?
- Fall whilst walking down the aisle or fall whilst having your first dance?
- Have the photographer cancel or the caterer cancel?

HOW TO PLAY SNAP THAT

(the simple and sweet memory saver)

ARTICLE WRITTEN BY
BEC OF 'FOR EVERY HEN'

Instructions +
alternative ways
to play!

TO PLAY, YOU WILL NEED:

Your guests and their camera phones, a Facebook group that includes all guests, and a printed photo checklist.

GAME INSTRUCTIONS:

Before the hen party, type up a checklist that includes different portrait and group shot items. For example, each guest is to capture the following:

- The hen and her bridesmaids
- Hen and mother of the bride
- Hen and mother of the groom
- Laughter
- Dancing
- Smiling
- Silly faces
- A selfie
- Tears of joy
- Drinking
- Shots
- Friendship
- How did they all fit in there? (All guests in a small space)
- The hen with her family
- The hen pulling a funny face
- Supermodel pose
- The venue

HANDY HINT:

Make everyone's checklist different and stick to a max of 10 items. This way you'll get a variety of photos and guests won't be glued to their phones for the entire party!

When guests arrive on the big day, hand each of them a checklist (or direct them to one, main checklist displayed at your event) and ask that they capture as many items as possible – with the person who ticks off the most being the winner.

This will ensure you get a heap of fun photos for your bride-to-be to look back on. But how will she get a hold of them?

There are two ways you can do this,

ONE: Put a time limit on the game. When the time is up, all guests are to upload the photos they've taken to the Facebook group you prepared earlier. You can then use these albums to judge who took the best pictures, who got the most items, etc. and hand out prizes accordingly.

TWO: At the end of the celebration, give a prize to the person who ticked off the most items from their checklist.

The next morning, post a 'thank-you' message in the Facebook Group you prepared earlier, with a side note asking that any pictures taken from the celebration be uploaded and shared (no matter how horrendous they are!).

TIP:

If you're looking for prize ideas, click here!

ALTERNATIVE WAYS TO PLAY:

ADD SOME MOVEMENT

Rather than just capturing still shots, consider adding items to the list that involve video. For example, 'take a video of the hen doing a ridiculous dance'.

HASHTAGS

Don't like the idea of a Facebook group, or the girls are more into Instagram? Make a special hashtag for the celebration and ask that guests use it when uploading their pictures. This will make it easy for tyour hen to find ALL of the hilarious photos from her special day!

UP THE ANTE

You could incorporate this game into a scavenger hunt, meaning hen party dares such as 'Get a photo of the bride with a bar tender' could be added to the list. Doing so will mean you'll have many more hilarious photo ops (and as a result, so much more to laugh at for years to come)!

FOOD

& Drink Tips

HOW TO SET UP A
LEMONADE STAND
DRINK STATION

Step-by-step guide to sour fun!

LEMONADE STAND (+ ALCOHOL!)

Is your event scheduled to take place in the middle of spring or summer? Would you like to provide delicious, thirst quenching beverages for guests whilst they enjoy the sunshine, light breeze and scenery in these beautiful months?

If you answered 'yes', a lemonade stand (with a cheeky twist!) may be the perfect drink station to compliment your event.

CREATING YOUR LEMONADE STAND

The first step in creating this sweet-as-can-be drink station is finding a cart or table to place your items on.

Lemonade stands look fantastic when combined with rustic tables/carts (as pictured on the next page). Sometimes you can find rustic tables perfect for this purpose at your local Op Shop – it's definitely worth a look!

If you don't have a rustic stand (or simply prefer a different décor style), white tables/table cloths also look beautiful. The bright lemon colours will really 'pop' against the stark backdrop!

Now it's time to turn your attention to the beverages themselves.

Neatly place some large jugs on your table/cart and fill each of them with freshly squeezed lemonade (this can be prepared before your event – click here for a delicious homemade recipe).

For those who want to offer up a variety of flavours, pineapple lemonade, strawberry lemonade and raspberry lemonade all make for tasty options. Attach cute tags to each jug letting guests know what type of lemony refreshment is awaiting them.

My favourite part comes next. Alcohol! Place a range of yummy options such as vodka, gin, peach schnapps or even beer on the table. Arrange these bottles near shot glasses; giving guests the chance to measure their cheeky extras or go free-range.

And finally, you will need something to drink from. Rather than guzzling this goodness from cups, add a bit of 'sparkle' to your celebration by offering champagne glasses instead. Not your style? Jars also make for stunning, reusable 'cups' that add an air of fun and uniqueness to your celebration.

From here it's up to your guests to get creative with their concoctions! Will they mix different flavours? Add shots? Or stick to good old-fashioned lemonade all on its own?

Only time will tell!

If you're considering a lemonade stand for your next event, click here for more inspiration. With everything from DIY cart décor to a delish lemonade recipe, these tips will have your guests refreshed and happy.

Handy Hint: Include a 'She found her main squeeze!' banner on your lemonade stand for added sweetness! You could even base the whole celebration around this theme - click here for some amazing 'Main Squeeze' Etsy inspiration!

COOKIES IN A JAR (BAR)

ARTICLE WRITTEN BY
BEC OF 'FOR EVERY HEN'

Looking for a food bar with a difference? This DIY Cookie in a Jar Bar, the brainchild of Krystyn from 'Really, Are You Serious?', will provide guests with the opportunity to not only create cookies from scratch, but also to test out wonderful mixtures they may not have otherwise tried.

Even better? It also doubles as a favour following the event!

CREATING YOUR DIY COOKIE IN A JAR BAR:

For starters, you will have to source enough large glass jars as there are guests. Rather than purchasing new, put the call-out on Facebook and collect friend's jars once they've emptied them of food. Soak to remove any labels and wash thoroughly.

Whilst your jars are drying, it's time to prep the ingredients.

What you offer will depend greatly on the recipe you decide to follow, although most will require self-raising flour (wholemeal and gluten free options are great to have just in case), brown and/or white sugar, baking powder and baking soda (find some fantastic cookie in a jar recipes - and video tutorial - by clicking here).

You should also grab lots of chocolate chips, M&Ms, sprinkles, nuts and anything else you can see making a great addition to your delicious desserts!

On the day of your celebration, place jars neatly in a basket at one end of the table, and ingredients in their own individual bowls (each with its own measuring cup, scoop or serving utensil).

On a large blackboard, write down the base recipe for guests to follow (this is particularly important for the cookie part - any additions, such as chocolate chips, is entirely up to your friends!).

Print off cooking instructions that can be taken home following the event.

If you wish, you can also leave some cute tags, strings and ribbons on the table for people to decorate their final product with (if they don't want to keep it, it will make a beautiful gift for someone they love!).

From here, guests can enjoy creating their very own cookies. A very interactive activity that will involve lots of fun and laughter, but will also result in a beautiful take-home favour. For more DIY Cookie in a Jar Bar inspiration (+ set-up ideas), click here.

HANDY HINTS:

If you don't like the idea of creating cookies from scratch, there is also the option of purchasing pre-made cookie mixes from your local Supermarket. Simply place the mix in your jars before guests arrive (as pictured below); party-goers can then add in any extras they like (such as peanuts) and take home to bake!

Not sold on the cookie idea? These 'build it yourself' style bars also work with hot chocolate (click here for video recipes), brownies, muffins and cakes. Pick your poison and go from there!
