Hosting the Ultimate Rubik's Cube Party!

How to Play

- Each guest must arrive in an outfit that resembles an incomplete Rubik's cube (i.e. wear the six different cube colours - white, red, blue, orange, green and yellow).
- The aim during the party is for guests' to swap articles of clothing until they have 'solved' the cube (i.e. they are wearing one colour only)
- You can set up some 'party rules' - giving guests different opportunities to swap articles of clothing (see below for inspiration)

Add Rules for More Fun! Some Ideas:

- Swap one item of clothing before a particular song finishes
- Swap an item of clothing when a particular word is mentioned in a song
- Swap an item of clothing discreetly (e.g. in a dark corner, in a cupboard, etc. If caught changing, must swap back)
- Each player must swap one item of clothing with a stranger
- Each player must swap one item of clothing with a person who has brown hair
- Each player must swap at least one item of clothing without anyone else seeing
- Each player must swap an item of clothing when the guest of honour (e.g. bride-to-be) says....

Hand Out Prizes - Some Category Inspiration:

- First to solve the cube (i.e. first to be dressed in one colour)
- Best dressed before the game
- Best dressed after the game
- Best accessories
- Most hilarious outfit before the game
- Most hilarious outfit after the game
- Sexiest outfit
- Most creative outfit
- Best before and after (take photos of each guest when they arrive and at the end of the party - best before and after outfit wins!)

Favour & Prize Ideas

- Food items such as colourful cupcakes, biscuits or lollies
  - Decorate square cookies to look like Rubik's Cubes
  - Bake a Rubik's Cube cake and send home slices as favours
  - Gift beeswax wraps - they come in a range of fun colours which is ideal for this theme
  - Living gifts - shop around for plants flowering in Rubik's cube colours (white, red, blue, orange or yellow)
  - Use printable Rubik's Cube favour boxes to hold your goodies

Decorate in Style!

- Flowers in Rubik's Cube colours
- Use themed food and drinks to bring colour to the table (assorted coloured shots/cocktails, iced biscuits, iced cupcakes, etc.)
- Fabric bunting in theme colours
- Turn cardboard boxes into giant Rubik's Cubes with a little paint
- Colourful balloons
- Put an 80s twist on the event - use lots of bright colours, photo booth dress ups (leg warmers to ball gowns can be found at your local op shop!), play music on a boom box, etc.

Handy Tips to Include on Invitations

- Only wear clothes and accessories you're happy to part with (hit up op shops - you won't mind letting go of items and you'll find some pieces that will have everyone in hysterics!)
- If you're not comfortable getting changed in front of people, wear something underneath your colourful clothing (such as a singlet and shorts/leggings)
- Bright, solid coloured clothes are best for the game
- Accessories are a must! Sunglasses, scarves, long socks, gloves, etc. make the game even better
- The more crazy, hideous, unique clothing the better!
